

Seen and heard in Mexico [children and revolutionary cultural nationalism /

Albarrán, Elena Jackson, author

University of Nebraska Press,
[2014]

Libros electrónicos

Monografía

An examination of the Mexican government's use of children to advance their state-formation goals following the Mexican Revolution, and the experience of children during this campaign

<https://rebiunoda.pro.baratznet.cloud:28443/OpacDiscovery/public/catalog/detail/b2FpOmNlbgVicmF0aW9uOmVzLmJhemF0ei5yZW4vMTc4OTU5NzY>

Título: Seen and heard in Mexico recurso electrónico] children and revolutionary cultural nationalism Elena Jackson Albarrán

Editorial: Lincoln University of Nebraska Press [2014]

Descripción física: 1 online resource (414 pages)

Mención de serie: E-Libro The Mexican experience

Bibliografía: Includes bibliographical references and index

Contenido: Introduction : seen and heard in revolutionary Mexico -- Constructing citizens : adult-produced science, space, symbolism, and rhetoric for the revolutionary child -- Pulgarcito and Popocatepetl : children's art curriculum and the creation of a national aesthetic -- A community of invisible little friends : technology and power in children's radio programs -- Comino vence al diablo and other terrifying episodes : Teatro Guiñol's itinerant puppet theater -- Hacer patria through peer education : literacy, alcohol, and the proletarian child -- Hermanitos de la raza : civic organizations and international diplomacy -- Conclusion : exceptional and everyday citizen

ISBN: 9780803264861 (cloth : alk. paper) 9780803265349 (pbk. : alk. paper) 9780803266841 e-book)

Materia: Children- México Children and politics

Materia Geográfica: México- History- 1910-1946

Punto acceso adicional serie-Título: Mexican experience

Baratz Innovación Documental

- Gran Vía, 59 28013 Madrid
- (+34) 91 456 03 60
- informa@baratz.es