

Saving Calvinism [expanding the reformed tradition /

Crisp, Oliver,

IVP Academic, an imprint of InterVarsity Press,
[2016]

Monografía

For many, Calvinism evokes the idea of a harsh God who saves a select few and condemns others to eternal torment. But Oliver Crisp argues that the Reformed tradition is much more diverse and flexible than we usually imagine. Taking on thorny topics like atonement, free will, and universalism, Crisp explores a more expansive Calvinism
