The 2007 Last Night of the Proms features the BBC Symphony Orchestra and Chorus - conducted by Jiri Belohlavek for the first time with Anna Netrebko (soprano), Andrew Kennedy (tenor) and Joshua Bell (violin). With final echoes of Shakespeare in works by Dvorak and Thomas Ades, and a rare revival for the anniversary of Elgar, the BBC Symphony Orchestra and Chorus are joined by a Russian soprano and an American violinist whose star qualities bring a fitting climax to this season, marking 80 years of the BBC's running of the Proms
