Analítica

This essay is intended to express the most significant concepts and criteria regarding to the democratic form of government and its linkage to Justice and Law, setting a number of complementary criteria. We will start by setting the most significant criteria around the idea of justice in order to intertwine them with the concepts of power, law, constitutional state of law, democratic government and finally with regard to electoral justice, constitutional law and electoral constitutional law, we will lay the foundation for the development of an electoral legislative study in order to identify local election laws in all the states that established principles of electoral justice, supporting all the administrative and judicial electoral activities in the country
