Newly qualified teacher Phyllie Saunders is evacuated with her school to Dorset. As she struggles to control the crowd of tearful children, she sees Sammy. Her oldest and dearest friend is on the way to join his submarine, and as he kisses her goodbye, everything changes for them. But now that war is tearing them apart, is it too late? Phyllie throws herself into village life, determined to protect and nurture the children in her care. But war leaves no one untouched, and Phyllie will need all the support of the community, as she waits and prays for Sammy's safe return ...
