Monografía

Rosie is wearing her red cape, sitting up in her thinking tree wondering what she'll be when she grows up. She's not old enough to be a pilot, or a paramedic, or a dog groomer. But she does believe that she can still do lots of terrific things right now. So when she goes for a walk with her dad and they pass a food bank, Rosie knows that she can do something pro-active while she's still a kid. But when Rosie bumps into a friend who seems embarrassed to be there with his family, she must figure out a way to make him feel better
