Educational spaces are the focus of all the buildings featured in this volume, ranging from day care facilities to secondary and tertiary institutions, and much more. The projects profiled in this book are by architects who are practiced in educational design and their work is testament to their specialist expertise. Each project showcased has been designed to provide all the services required of the specific educational facility, while also responding to current trends and new developments in this field. In addition, biographies of many of the participating architectural and design firms are provided for readers' information and interest
